Background Verification Disclosure with Credit

As a part of the employment and/or associative relationship process, Youth Quests and its agents and employees may make investigative inquiries on my background and personal references. The Fair Credit Reporting Act as amended by the Consumer Reporting Act of 1996 requires that we advise you, the consumer, that a report may be made which may include, but not limited to information pertaining to your credit standing and capacity, character, reputation, personal traits, mode of living, past and present employers, reasons for termination and other descriptive qualities. It is understood that the willful suppression or intentional misrepresentation of any fact, supplied to Youth Quests by me, will at the discretion of Youth Quests, be considered bad faith and could terminate the proposed employment and/or associative relationship with Youth Quests. Upon written request, information as to the nature and scope of the report will be provided (if one is made) if employment and/or associative relationships are denied due to information obtained therein.

Authority to Release Information

I hereby authorize any officer, representative, contractor or vendor of Youth Quests, bearing this authorization or copy thereof to conduct background investigations including but not limited to a national cross reference of 50 states showing actual addresses, obtaining a consumer credit report and any other information regarding my driving history and records, criminal history and community standing. The report may include interviews with my neighbors, friends, associates, past and present employers and records of banking, financial statements, professional worker's compensation claims, and military history, civil and insurance claims. In compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act, my understanding that the information is for the official use of Youth Quests and its officers, representatives, contractors and vendors. Consent is granted for Youth Quests and its officers, representatives, contractors or vendors to furnish such information as described above to third parties in the course of fulfilling their official responsibilities. Please furnish the bearer with any information you have about me.
